The most interesting thing for me was ...

- meet new cultures
- The city
- Everything
- Students
- The friendships built in short time
- To spend time with international students/teachers
- talking to people
- Excursions, work in teams
- Getting to know people from other countries
- Meeting new people and getting to know them. Doing stuff with them outside the school/freetime. The Austrians showed us the good bars
- the sightseeing we went to

- Free time.
- The free time
- the places
- The places
- culture
- the River Bank
- meeting new people.
- Know different cultures
- to meet new people from all over Europe in a other destination. In addition I love it to travel and to discover new places. Very interesting was it, to be in international groups and to do some work with the people. I liked the lessons from the teachers, the treasure hunt (so we learned something about Linz) and the ride with the chairlift & the "Sommerrodelbahn".
- The culture of different countries
- To cooperate with students from other state with different language and traditions.
- the opportunity to know better other culture and Improve my english and communication with other people
- visiting all The places
- Meeting students from all around the world
- the most interesting thing for me was a visit to Lisbon
- to meet other cultures
- Making new friends, speaking in english, the sightseeings
- To met new people
- meeting different students, and getting the chance to see how different school systems work. Another interesting thing where the different activity's, and the great chance to discover the city, culture, traditions and food of the place.
- Trying new food, talk in English, explore the city, fly with the plane, "U-Bahn and Fähre"

Self-evaluation question 3

It was important for me that ...

- meet new people
- I can speak english
- it was good
- Everything
- Everyone felt included
- I would make some friends, practise my english, learn something new
- we had enough time to socialize
- i was speaking good English
- I had a chance to meet other people
- We had a lot of free time.
- The people were nice
- we saw the city
- we visited the River Bank
- I got along with my international group.
- Speak in english and "living" with my friends

- I can learn something new about other people from other nationalities and to get to know other cultures. For me it was also important to learn the English language better.
- We were getting along
- I will speak with people where the only language I can use is English.
- We could improve our communication skills and socialized
- Everyone was really nice
- We travelled with the best teachers
- It was important for me that I met a lot of new people and improved communication between people
- we learn something about the project
- I would speak often in english and learn new cultures
- we get the chance to discover different school systems and also places. So I found out what the really important and good things of our school system and school are. Also the fact that the students tried there best to explain and show us the SDGs projects and other important topics in their town.
- Nobody was alone, that everyone made new friends, that everyone was nice to each other, that everyone felt comfortable.

Self-evaluation question 4

I would change/improve about the exchange programme ...

- Nothing
- anything
- Programme
- more free time with other students
- That international groups should make more activities to learn each other
- talk to the students about the program
- that the prgramme will be choosen by scholars and teachers together
- A programm which fits the age of us
- The tasks
- A little bit more free time
- nothing
- some activities which were more to the younger people
- I would make the field trips more interesting.
- Perhaps the tour of the gas facility could have been skipped because it was a little bit boring.
- More getting to know each other games
- Nothing.
- Have a precise plan according to which you work but enough free time
- maybe more teambuilding activities
- Time organization
- The exchange program would not change anything, everything was amazing and I really enjoyed it. Thank you to all teachers for the opportunity to participate in this project
- not too much stress
- More understandable work orders

- I would just change the time management, because in our case sometimes the programme where a little bit to much. The other activity's and lessons where gerate!
- Maybe the programme, sometimes it was a little bit too intensive
